

1. International Womens' Day (9/3/2023)

Keeping with the tradition of celebrating International Women's Day, this year too the Women's Cell of Saraighat College in collaboration with Indian Army's Red Horns Division, Changsari. A programme was held on that day in the seminar hall where the Principal of the College inaugurated the programme and talked about the place of women in Indian civilization right from the vedic period to the modern times. The Chief Guest of the programme was Major Pooja Dubey, Chief Medical Officer , 321 Army Field Hospital, Changsari. The officer gave a lecture on Women's Empowerment and gave a powerpoint presentation on various topics like Sexual Harassment at Public and Private Space, Success of Indian women in sports, armed forces, space science, industry and technology and also the legal mechanisms like POSH available to address the cases of gender abuse and harassment. The programme was followed by a Question and Answer Session where the students asked various questions about how to join the armed forces, the government schemes regarding gender empowerment etc. At, last the vote of thanks was given by Dr.Farida Haque Sultana, General Secretary Women's Cell and Assistant Professor , Department of English. She also anchored the whole programme.

Total Participants: 100